

SOCIETY

MONDAY evening the rehearsal for "The Taming of the Shrew," by The Footlights, was excellent. Every member of the cast was present and also every chairman of committees. The result is most gratifying, not only to Mr. William Lewers, the director, but to every member of The Footlights. Mrs. F. R. Day, Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Mrs. Arthur Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, each of whom heads a committee, were interested spectators and report the satisfactory progress in preparation for the Shakespearean tercentenary event.

A large number of dinner parties are to be held the night of the performance, which is to be the 26th of April. It is anticipated that it will be a gala night. The club very wisely decided to have the curtain go up at 8:30, in order not to interfere with the large number of dinners planned for that evening.

The Cherry Blossom Fete.

That the Chamber of Commerce has put its stamp of approval on the coming Japanese fete, believing the object to be worth while, has delighted the hearts of those on the executive committee, of which the following ladies and gentlemen are members: Mrs. John E. Baird, Mrs. William H. Soper, Deaconess Spencer, Rev. Mr. Fukao, Mrs. E. L. S. Gordon, Mrs. Remon Hind, Mrs. A. A. Young.

This committee meets today at the home of Mrs. A. A. Young, following the meeting of the needlework committee. Judged by the vitality that emanates from each and every member, the Cherry Blossom Fete is to be unusual in its very completeness. The decoration committee has already outlined a perfect scheme, every detail being according to measure, and it is an assured fact that the tout ensemble will make the modern Quintilian "stare and gasp."

Now and again wonderful secrets come leaking out from goodness knows where. The latest is that a bona fide Punch and Judy show is to delight our hearts. How many years is it since we've seen one? But Mrs. Linton knew that by springing a surprise on the children of Honolulu—and those of us that are grown-up are children still—she would not only cause them to rise up and call her blessed, but she would incidentally fill St. Hilda's money bag to the extent of bursting.

Delicatessen Sale.

The Catholic Ladies' Aid Society has completed arrangements for a delicatessen sale on the last Saturday of this month. It is earnestly hoped that a sufficient sum will be made to assist the society in the care of its charity cases. This society has been in existence for 30 years and in all of that time has gone about its work in a quiet, unostentatious way, never refusing help wherever help was necessary.

Donations of either money or articles of food for sale will be gratefully accepted by the committee. A phone message to either Mrs. E. S. Cunha or Mrs. J. F. Bowler will be gratefully attended to. The sale is to be held in the empty store on the corner of Beretania and Fort streets in the Harrison block. Nearly every good kitchen in Honolulu has contributed some delicious bit of food. Roast ham, roast turkey, roast chickens and ducks, to say nothing of pies, cakes, potato salad and delicious German herring salad, pork and beans, rolls, doughnuts and cookies, will be sold.

Tourists at Lulu.

A party of visiting tourists attended an old-fashioned Hawaiian luau at the home of Kaleiala, Wilder avenue, yesterday, the affair being arranged by friends of the visitors. A Hawaiian quintet played during the luau, which was followed by exhibitions of hula dancing. The party was composed of Dr. F. S. Solomon of San Francisco, Mrs. Frank Ridlon of Boston, Mrs. E. A. Caff of Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. J. Newfield of Lodi, California;

Mrs. John E. Baird, who heads the executive committee in charge of the coming Cherry Blossom Fete, a notable event of next month.

Miss A. Harrison of Los Angeles, R. Davis of San Francisco, Mrs. F. W. Marston of Oakland, California, Miss Dorothy Arzner of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hertz of San Francisco, and Mrs. L. M. Holmes of Los Angeles.

Departing Service People Honored.

Among the small affairs given in honor of Col. and Mrs. Walter H. Chatfield and their sister, Mrs. Tupper, was a musical at the Colonial on Saturday evening last. Miss Leontine Dwyer of St. Louis, an old-time friend of the Chatfields, was the charming hostess, making everyone feel at ease and urging her guests to a closer acquaintance with these delightful Southern people, who, unfortunately for Honolulu, sailed on the Logan yesterday.

A surprise in the form of a hula dance by one of the native musicians from the Molokai group added zest to the evening's enjoyment.

Of Local Interest.

Engagements and marriages on the east coast of interest to Honoluluans, as reported by Vogue:

Country Club Dance.

The Country Club has sent the following notice to members: "On the evening of April 14 at 8 p. m. there will be a dance, at the Country Club to which you and your guests are invited."

A farewell reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Martin, Campbell avenue, Kapaehulu, last Monday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeman and family who left for the mainland in the steamer Ventura yesterday. The evening was spent with music, dancing and games. The Freemans will make their home in the vicinity of San Diego. Mr. Freeman for several years was foreman of McCabe, Hamilton & Renny.

Lieut. W. C. Rose, who has been one of the beneficiaries of both the town and service set, left on Tuesday for the been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gaillard Stoney, left last Thursday for Pacific Grove for a month or two with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Pryor. Lieut. Pryor is with his ship, the Raleigh.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Col. and Mrs. Charles McCormick, U. S. A., will arrive in San Francisco on April 3. They have engaged rooms at the Hotel Cecil. They are close friends of Brig.-gen. and Mrs. Edward McClelland and Mrs. Elizabeth Pratt, who are also guests at that hotel.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Paymaster U. R. Zivnuska, U. S. N., and Mrs. Zivnuska will be at Bremerton, the former having been assigned to the Pittsburg, now at the northern port. Mrs. Zivnuska will remain for a time, however, as the guest of Mrs. R. K. Van Mater at Mare Island.—San Francisco Examiner.

Mrs. L. Lewis, sister of Lieut. R. B. Ellis, U. S. A., was complimented at a dinner given last week by Lieut. and Mrs. Ellis. The dinner was in the nature of a farewell to Mrs. Lewis, who left the following day for the South.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mrs. William Piggott Cronan (Nell Grant) will be here from her home at Bremerton, where Lieut. Cronan, U. S. A., was stationed, to spend the early spring with her mother, Mrs. Jesse R. Grant.—San Francisco Examiner, March 26.

WOMEN'S SOCIETY OF CENTRAL UNION WILL GIVE SOCIAL TOMORROW

Tomorrow, April 13, will take place another of the delightful socials for which the Women's Society of Central Union Church is noted. The affair will take place at 3 o'clock in the parish house, and there will be an excellent program of music and readings during the afternoon, after which refreshments will be served by the young girls of Miss Dieckman's class. This is the society's farewell to the former president, Mrs. A. L. Andrews, and several of the officers who are leaving this spring for a long sojourn in the East and it is also the last afternoon social before September, so it is hoped that the attendance will be large.

This affair also includes a jelly shower for the benefit of the calling and courtesy committees who use many dozen glasses of jelly during the year in the work heretofore furnishing this from their own private larders. The officers hope that by this plan the women who officially represent the society in the making of calls and offering of other courtesies may have the cooperation of the entire membership in this material way.

that he will be sent back again, but "orders is orders."

Mrs. C. E. A. Anderson (nee Anna Rose) was a home-coming passenger in the steamer Wilhelmnia on Tuesday. It is four years since Mrs. Anderson left here and her friends are glad to welcome her home and say aloha to a popular island girl.

Col. Walter H. Chatfield and his very charming wife left on the Logan on Tuesday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Tupper. Col. and Mrs. Chatfield made numerous friends during the short time Col. Chatfield commanded at Fort Shafter.

Capt. and Mrs. E. K. Massee left on Tuesday's transport, greatly to the regret of many Honolulu friends, who are all sorry to have this popular couple leaving Hawaii. Both say they are surely coming back to the isles of Peace.

Mrs. Charles R. Forbes, wife of the superintendent of public works, left for San Francisco in the Lurline yesterday on her way to Walkersport, Indiana, where she will spend several months at her father's home.

Mrs. W. A. Gance and her daughter of Schofield Barracks were outgoing passengers on Tuesday's transport, the Logan.

Mrs. John Mather and her daughter were outgoing passengers on the transport Logan for a visit to the mainland.

Lieut. and Mrs. E. J. O'Hara left on Tuesday's transport.

ARMY AND NAVY SOCIETY ON COAST

Mrs. Oscar L. Richard, who came West with Mrs. Richard Lounsbury and Mrs. Ben All Lounsbury, is at the Palace. Mrs. Richard's son, Walter C. Richard, will marry next month Miss Orville Wooster, niece of Mrs. C. Augustus Spreckels and a cousin of Mrs. Spencer Eddy.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Lieut.-comdr. John J. Hannigan was host at a dinner Thursday evening on board the U. S. S. Albatross. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Judge, Mr. and Mrs. Cheever Cowdin and Miss Marion Zelle.—San Francisco Examiner.

Mrs. Francis Davis Pryor, who has

GET IT FIRST—NOT LAST

When a cold grips your system it is convincing proof that your condition is weakened—remember that. It is risky indeed to simply trust your strength to throw it off, because neglected colds have brought more serious sickness than any other one thing, while weakening cathartics and stimulating syrups are often depressing and dangerous.

The one best treatment for any cold—the one so often relied on when others fail, is the powerful blood-nourishment in Scott's Emulsion, which feeds the very sources of bodily strength to suppress the present cold and generate strength to thwart further sickness. Get Scott's first, not last—and insist
